

Still Small Voice

December 2015

My dear friends;

The invisible choices that we make, become the essence of the lives we then live!

Selah! Pause and think of that at this holiday season. Living in Jerusalem, the biblical center of the world we are so aware of the world changing before our very eyes day by day. Our faith is challenged as never before. On going terror in our streets is real. We pray the "LIGHT" of our lives grows ever brighter in the growing darkness.

Thank you for praying and supporting the on going outreaches of Still Small Voice. The word God gave us for 2015 was: "the world will never be the same again!"

Jay and I spent 2015 sounding the alarm about ISIS in Canada and Europe. Little did we realize the incredible significance of it all. "World Terror, Revival and You." is now available for purchase. You may order it from our office.

The subject of "Refugees" was also our focus. ALL 11 of our adopted Sudanese family immigrated into Toronto Canada in April and October of 2015 after 8 long hard years of closed doors. Jay refused to give up. Your have helped us Here is the latest news from our adopted daughter Indira in Kathmandu as of Dec 15th 2015. To date she has rescued 90 children out of brothels.

"Namaste dear mama Meridel; Sorry for not writing you for a long time as I was sick. As you know we have been suffering from India's blockade. Life is very difficult with no cooking gas available and no petrol. We look forward to your visit this January Mama. There is so much that needs to be done. I have come to know of the many orphaned children left from the civil war. Our government has no plan to help them. They have just been left in the streets. They are seeking love. Let's do something for them and share the love of God with them. God bless u with a big hug from Indira.

"Rejoice with those who rejoice and weep with those who weep." Rom. 12:15 "Then God said, 'Let there be light': and there was light. And God saw the light, that it was good; and God divided the light from the darkness." Genesis 1:3,4.

Listen to the agony of Asia, I who am fed,
Who never yet went hungry for want of bread,
I see and try to pray!
